QUESNEL HORSESHOE CLUB – JEANETTE FERRARA

Our executive has decided to cancel the tournaments for the rest of this year and start again fresh next year.

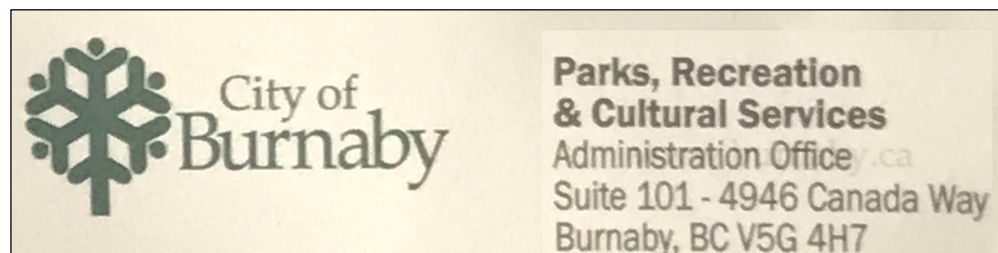

We are still doing our two nights a week with fun nights. Monday and Wednesday and if it rains on one of these days we pitch Friday. We usually have around 12 pitchers each night and everyone has a lot of fun. It is the only social event we could have with the pandemic. We are having a work party at the pits to repair some of them and all the pitchers have been great when it comes to helping out.

We have such a good time and the maintenance crew is great our pits have never looked so good. Last year Lorenzo and I applied weed killer to the whole complex and what a difference that has made.

HOW TO INCREASE MEMBERSHIP – SALMON ARM HORSESHOE CLUB – AMY KIDD

We plastered the town with posters, passed out "business cards". Lots of talking to people, I think a lot of it was people are just looking for something new to do - boredom has set in.

One of our new players is Rod Butts his grandfather was instrumental in getting the Victoria club (Colin Butts) going. and he designed a shoe called "Can Flip", which is the shoe I bought from one of S.A. players when I joined 13 years ago, have never used another shoe, I don't know what I would do if one broke. Rod is going to be a good player. Anyhow, that is our story, and we are sticking to it.

COMOX HORSESHOE CLUB – ERIC KELLOW

We, in the Comox Valley are, about to be up and running. Using our normal night for playing we are into practice fun nights on Thursday evenings at 6PM. Our last night will be July 1 and then our league will begin on the 8th not June same time and at the Cumberland pits.

There are hopes of adding one or possibly two new teams to our roster. One never knows until the final sign up date.

We still stick to the Covid regimens but then most of our players have been poked twice. That's the one in the arm.

We were given an ok to hold our annual general meeting later than normal so we will be doing our final roundup and the AGM after this year's short season. Exact dates to be promulgated once the season length has been determined.

My apologies for nothing in the past little bit of time but I am sure nothing is not what you would like. Oh yes our hot rod player Murray hung up a six packman first night of funned practice. We are beginning to call him six pack Murray

HISTORY OF CENTRAL PARK – SUBMITTED BY BERNIE LEPPER

Burnaby's Central Park is one of the legacies of the Royal Engineers' military defences for New Westminster. The fear of an American attack prompted construction of the False Creek Trail—now Kingsway—in 1860 to connect the capital city to the ice-free salt water harbour at English Bay.

A military reserve was set aside at the same time at the trail's highest point along the ridge. The reserve provided a particularly good scenic lookout: since the original forest had burned down prior to 1860, the remaining stumps offered an unobscured view. The land included District Lots 151, 152, and 153 and would roughly include the land bounded by Kingsway/Grange, Royal Oak, Imperial, and Boundary roads.

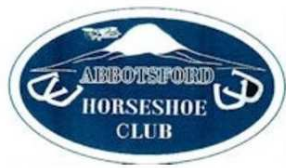

By the 1880s, the City Council of both New Westminster and Vancouver eyed the reserve as a potential recreation ground. As construction of a tram line was underway, the Provincial Government moved to designate the whole reserve as a park. On January 14, 1891, the Lieutenant Governor of British Columbia, David C. Lam, proclaimed it as a public recreation ground for the enjoyment of the citizens of Vancouver and New Westminster. Vancouver Mayor Oppenheimer praised the new "central park" located midway on the tram line and when a tram station was established there, it bore the mayor's name. Unfortunately, the park was later cut in half to provide land for settlers east of Patterson Avenue and now forms the urban core of Metrotown.
