Time gets better with age

I like my teacher because she cries when we sing "Silent Night." Age 5

*

I've learned that our dog doesn't want to eat my broccoli either. Age 7

*

I've learned that when I wave to people in the country, they stop what they are doing and wave back. Age 9

*

I've learned that just when I get my room the way I like it, Mom makes me clean it up again. Age 12

*

I've learned that if you want to cheer yourself up, you should try cheering someone else up. Age 14

*

I've learned that although it's hard to admit it, I'm secretly glad my parents are strict with me. Age 15

*

I've learned that silent company is often more healing than words of advice. Age 24

*

I've learned that brushing my child's hair is one of life's great pleasures. Age 26

*

I've learned that wherever I go, the world's worst drivers have followed me there. Age 29

*

I've learned that if someone says something unkind about me, I must live so that no one will believe it. Age 30

*

I've learned that there are people who love you dearly but just don't know how to show it. Age 42

*

I've learned that you can make someone's day by simply sending them a little note. Age 44

*

I've learned that the greater a person's sense of guilt, the greater his or her need to cast blame on others. Age 46

*

I've learned that children and grandparents are natural allies. Age 47

*

I've learned that no matter what happens, or how bad it seems today, life does go on and it will be better tomorrow. Age 48

*

I've learned that singing "Amazing Grace" can lift my spirits for hours. Age 49

*

I've learned that motel mattresses are better on the side away from the phone. Age 50

*

I've learned that you can tell a lot about a man by the way he handles these three things: a rainy day, lost luggage, and tangled Christmas tree lights. Age 51

*

I've learned that keeping a vegetable garden is worth a medicine cabinet full of pills. Age 52

*

I've learned that regardless of your relationship with your parents, you miss them terribly after they die. Age 53

*

I've learned that making a living is not the same thing as making a life. Age 58

*

I've learned that life sometimes gives you a second chance. Age 62

*

I've learned that you shouldn't go through life with a catcher's mitt on both hands. You need to be able to throw something back. Age 64

*

I've learned that if you pursue happiness, it will elude you. But if you focus on your family, the needs of others, your work, meeting new people,
And doing the very best you can, happiness will find you. Age 65

I've learned that whenever I decide something with kindness, I usually make the right decision. Age 66

*

I've learned that everyone can use a prayer. Age 72

*

I've learned that even when I have pains, I don't have to be one. Age 74

*

I've learned that every day you should reach out and touch someone. People love that human touch - holding hands, a warm hug,
Or just a friendly pat on the back. Age 76

*

I've learned that I still have a lot to learn. Age 78

*

I've learned that life is what you make it, and your life is much better when you make someone happy. Age 80+

I've learned that you should pass this on to someone you care about. Sometimes they just need a little something to make them smile.

If Things Get Better With Age Then I'm Approaching Excellent.
"Old Friends are the best friends "Thank you for being an "OLD FRIEND"

FROM WINFIELD HORSESHOE CLUB – JOHN HAMLER

Steven and I met with Shaun Lesowski, the District of Lake Country Parks & Facilities Superintendent and Adam Hicks, Site Superintendent with TKI Construction, the contractor doing the work.

We discussed the power situation. They want to get us up and running as soon as possible. They originally looked at running temporary power but it is just as much work and $$$$ to do it permanent. They will talk to the district to get that approved. This could take some time. We will be without water from now till late next week. They want to make sure we have heat for the winter. I know TKI as I worked for them part time previously.

They have a reputation for getting things done. If you are coming down to play horseshoes please note that parking is now limited. We need to keep a list of who comes down to play in case we need to do contact tracing. The list needs to be dated each time you meet for horseshoes. One person can make up the list to limit how many are using the same pen. Please use the writing pads in the clubhouse and keep them at the sanitation table in the clubhouse. We need to keep these records for 60 days. And there is stuff going on in the arena and ball diamond.

All this is subject to everything going as planned. Things can change if unforeseen problems are encountered as happens in projects like this. Right now we don't know when and for how long the power will be off. I will take some stuff out of bar and clean out anything out of the fridge as needed.

As far as cribbage starting again, don't Hold Your Breath! In checking with Interior Health, there is, no safe way for this to happen. All cards playing at any organized situation is on hold. You would have no way to social distance, numerous people touching the pegs, boards, cards, tables etc. No to mention the reused Kleenex an Hanky's that fly around. Don't expect cribbage to return this year. I just hope when it does it will be better appreciated and everyone treats each other properly. I talked to interior health about setting up cribbage outside, with proper spacing between the tables but no go due to the reasons I have already mentioned. It is tough for us all but we have to hang in there. I will stay in contact as any new details are known about the construction and cribbage. Bonnie Henry Says, "Be Kind, Be Calm, Be Safe"
